Enjoy blissful moments / overlooking the beautiful garden

Gyokusen'an Rest House is built on the site of a former gardeners' office, which dates back to the Edo period (1603-1868). From inside the Rest House, you can look out over gardens delineated by beautifully designed stone walling, as exemplified by the Shikishi Tanzaku-Zumi Stone Wall.

This is the perfect place to enjoy a few moments of blissful rest, with a cup of Matcha green tea and a traditional Japanese sweets, while drinking in the dynamic beauty of these matchless gardens.

Matcha green tea and freshly made traditional Japanese sweets.
